FREE COUNSELING AND EVALUATION SERVICES FOR CHILDREN & ADOLESCENTS

Under licensed psychologist/faculty supervision, graduate students in the UW School Psychology Program provide the following services free of charge:

- COUNSELING SERVICES using evidence-based practices to treat a wide range of childhood disorders and mental health issues.
- EVALUATION SERVICES examining cognitive, academic, and socio-emotional/behavioral concerns. While we cannot provide formal diagnoses, recommendations for supporting your child's learning are provided.

Recruitment period ends mid-November 2023, with services beginning in January 2024. Please complete the online form and we will reach out to continue the service request process.
